2. After logging in, you will be taken to "MY PROFILE". One key indicator of seeing that you are logged in, is that the background of the EAACI website will be green.

3. After you login, go to resources and click on Journals.

4. Click on “Access the journal here”. You can access Allergy and Pediatric Allergy and Immunology.

5. You will be taken to Wiley Online Library and now have access to the journals Allergy and Pediatric Allergy and Immunology.

The screenshot shows the Wiley Online Library page for the journal 'Allergy'. The page header includes 'Wiley Online Library' and a 'Log in / Register' button. The main content area features a banner for 'Cell-based immunotherapies: T-Cell CARs' with a 'Free Webinar' registration link. Below the banner, the journal title 'Allergy' is displayed, along with the volume and issue information: 'November 2017, Volume 72, Issue 11, Pages 1593–1819'. A search box is visible on the right. The page also includes a sidebar with 'JOURNAL TOOLS' and 'JOURNAL MENU' sections. At the bottom, there is a 'FREE WEBINAR' section for 'Cell-based immunotherapies: T-Cell CARs' with registration details.
