

Allergy School on Primary Care - A holistic approach

30 October – 1 November 2014

Mallorca, Spain

Preliminary Programme

Thursday, 30 October 2014

12:00 – 14:00

Registration

14:00 – 14:15

Welcome

Dermot Ryan, UK

14:15 – 15:45

Session I – The Background

14:15 – 14:45

Primary care and allergy: size of problem, why it matters, common problems and educational needs, what is and isn't allergy

Diana Church, UK

14:45 – 15:15

Psychology of allergy: consequence / cause or simple comorbidity impacting in management: medically unexplained symptoms of allergy

Audrey Dunn Galvin, Ireland

15:15 – 15:45

Rhinitis and allergy: what is allergic rhinitis, not always easy to recognize, its impact and comorbidities, what to do in primary care

Dermot Ryan, UK

15:45 - 16:15

COFFEE BREAK and Poster Viewing

16:15 – 18:15

Session II

16:15 – 16:45

Asthma and allergy: what is allergic asthma, its impact and comorbidities, what to do in primary care?

Kerstin Rhomberg, Sweden

16:45 – 17:15

Allergen immunotherapy for respiratory allergic diseases: who might benefit

Carmen Vidal, Spain

17:15 – 17:45

Venom allergy

Ioana Agache, Romania

18:15 – 20:00

Welcome Reception

Friday, 31 October 2014

- 09:00 – 10:30 Session III – Anaphylaxis: essential knowledge for primary care
- 09:00 – 09:30 Anaphylaxis: recognition and initial management in primary care (not acute care)
Carmen Vidal, Spain
- 09:30 – 10:00 Practical demonstration of resuscitation and adrenalin auto-injectors
Samantha Walker, UK
- 10:00 – 10:30 Involving schools in anaphylaxis management: the Mallorcan experience
Mercedes Escarrer, Spain and Susana Ranea, Spain
- 10:30-11:00 COFFEE BREAK and Poster Viewing
- 11:00 – 12:30 Session IV – Core skills for allergy management in primary care
- 11:00 – 11:45 Defining core competencies in allergy training needed for primary care
Kristof Nekam, Hungary
- 11.45 – 12:15 Taking a concise Allergy history in primary care
Liz Angier, UK
- 12:00 – 12:30 Interpretation of allergy tests performed in primary care
Ola Storroe, Norway
- 12:45 – 13:30 LUNCH BREAK and Poster Viewing
- 13:30 – 15:00 Session V – Food allergy: a growing problem
- 13:30 – 14:00 The dietician’s role in food allergy
Isabel Skypala, UK
- 14:00 – 14:30 Infant and Paediatric food allergy
Trevor Brown, UK
- 14:30 – 15:00 Adult food allergy including Oral allergy syndrome
Bertine Flokstra de Blok, The Netherlands
- 15:00-15:30 COFFEE BREAK

15:30 – 18:00

Session VI – Multi faceted presentations of allergic disease

15:30 – 16:00

Drug allergy: the many faces, management in primary and tertiary care
Werner Aberer, Austria

16:00 – 16:30

Acute and chronic urticarial: management in primary care
Diana Church, UK

16:30 – 17:00

Eczema: management in primary care according to age
Thomas Werfel, Germany

17:00 – 17:30

Preliminary findings of a questionnaire for use in primary care to differentiate atopic from non-atopic disease
Samantha Walker, UK

17:30 – 18:00

Educational needs of primary care: findings from questionnaire
Ioana Agache, Romania

19:00

DINNER

Saturday, 1 November 2014

09:00 – 10:30

Session VII – Supporting primary care

09:00 – 09:30

Acquiring the skills to manage allergy completely in primary care: knowing when a specialist opinion is needed
Nino Lomidze, Georgia

09:30 – 10:00

Developing educational and support tools for primary care.
Liz Angier, UK

10:00 – 10:30

Development information systems to support delivery of primary care allergy services
Miguel Román Rodríguez, Spain

10:30 - 11:00

COFFEE BREAK

11:00 – 12:30

Session VIII – Evolving themes

11:00 – 11:30

A structured approach to asthma management in primary care
Dermot Ryan, UK

11:30 – 12:00

Allergy, Asthma and Sport
Kerstin Rhomberg, Sweden

12:00 – 12:30

How EFA can work with Primary care to ensure quality allergy assessment and management in primary care: what patients would like.
Breda Flood, Ireland

12:30 – 13:00

Allergy from the cradle to old age; what are the implications of this?
Victoria Cardona, Spain

13:00 – 13:15

Closing remarks and prizes